MUSIC FOR GATHERING

CALL TO WORSHIP

On this night, we gather to remember.

We open our hearts and minds to relive the pain and victory that have become for us the doorway to the eternal.

We recognize the Shadows that encroach on every life, and meditate on that one moment in history when they seemed to extinguish the light entirely.

We come in awe and in worship, for the darkness has never, and will never overcome the Light revealed in the human life and death of Jesus Christ.

PREPARATION FOR COMMUNION

And so, let us recollect the last meal that Jesus shared with His friends.

On the night of His agony and arrest, the followers of Christ gathered with Him around a supper table.

As they were eating, He took a loaf of bread and said to them,

"This is My body, broken for you. Take and eat this and remember Me."

When the meal was complete, He took the cup of wine and said to them,

"This is My blood shed for you. Take and drink this and remember Me."

And so we do this, now and always, in grateful and loving memory of the One Who gave Himself for us.

—A moment of silence is observed in the darkness—

THE LORD'S SUPPER IS SERVED

And so, Lord Jesus, Light of the World, we come to your table, confessing the darkness within us.

We come simply because you are merciful and you have filled our hearts with light.

We come to eat this bread and to drink this wine, and so be changed.

Let your presence, which fills us through this meal, cast out all shadows, and keep us in your light forever. Amen.

Communion will be served in silence. All are welcome to share in this meal. We serve by intinction: please come forward by the center aisle, take a piece of bread, dip it in the cup and eat. Return to your place via the side aisles. If you are more comfortable to remain where you are, we will gladly bring the bread and cup to you. For those who desire it, you will find gluten-free bread and individual cups of juice on the table.

*When you have been served, you are welcome to depart at your leisure.
Please maintain silence until you have left the building.*
